Few More Days Will Conclude Standard Oil Hearing In New York.

NEW YORK, January 15.—At the conclusion to-day of the testimony of F. M. Towle, chief engineer of the Standard's system of pipe lines, it was stated that one or two days more was likely to see the end of the oil hearing here. Some additional rebuttal testimony will be taken in Chicago, and the case will then be closed except for the final arguments in St. Louis in Apvil.

day and produced under subpoena mapshowing the Standard Oil Company's entire pipe line systems. He was examined at length by Counsel Kellogy for the government, the purport of the questions being evidently to prove that the lines could be operated as common carriers, and further that the dispatch of oil of varying grades through, the lines without damage or seriss intermixture was not impossible or impracticable.
